++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Rain or showers, beginning to clear from the west later.

Today:
Dull and wet for much of the day with showers or longer periods of rain, which turns heavy at times, particularly across Skye and Lochaber. However gradually turning drier from the west from mid-afternoon, as the strong winds ease. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Tonight:
Some patchy rain, mainly early evening and to the north of the Black Isle, but most staying dry with clear spells increasing from the south through the evening. Light winds. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Saturday:
For most Saturday will be fine, dry and bright with light winds. However some patchy light rain may appear around east coasts early and in the west from evening. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Sunday cloudy with occasional rain, but little reaching the northern end of Great Glen. Monday on balance mostly dry, bright, but also some patchy rain around. Tuesday brings blustery showers.
